MRS. BELLA FENWICK, SOUGHT BY POLICE.
The Malden authorities have sent out a circular in the effort to locate Mrs. Fenwick, who is accused of kidnapping 8-year-old Reita Sully.

CZAR CONDEMNED TO DIE; 2 MEN ARRESTED

ST. PETERSBURG, March 2.—Two men with bombs in their possession were arrested today near the Imperial palace at Pouskovo-Selo.

Very recently the St. Petersburg secret service discovered that even some of the police officers were involved in a plot to assassinate the czar. The police officers of the division which guarded the czar and the czar's family were the divided Russian secret police have been very active and watchful of late because of the possibility of a revolution. The czar had condemned the czar to death.

According to what appears to be the latest information agents of the revolutionists have been plotting to assassinate the czar.

At Geneva, Switzerland, has been exceedingly industrious. It is stated that a reward of $100,000 has been offered for the man who should succeed in ending the life of Nicholas.

The czar has had full warning and he has been able to escape the hands of the revolutionists.

WOMAN IS NAMED AS KIDNAPPER

Malden Police Send Out General Alarm for Arrest of Mrs. Bella Fenwick.

Mood in the home of Mrs. George M. Bishop of Malden, who is grandfather to the kidnapping of her eight-year-old niece, Helga Victoria Nully, was Malden police have made public the name of Mrs. Bishop's daughter, Mrs. Helen M. Bishop, and aunt of the little girl, as the person they charge with being the kidnapper. A vigorous police search will now be made for the large clerics of the United States and Canada.

They had her under suspicion from the first, but feared to put her on guard for fear of the reaction of the public.

D. Harris has sent out 1,000 circulars, calling for the arrest of Mrs. Fenwick, Mrs. Bishop, in her agonized grief, has made a public statement that the name of the girl's beloved niece to be found still the name of the suspected woman was withheld.

Now, however, fearing to delay too long in the case, the Boston Herald has published the name of the thirteen-year-old sister, Mabel, who was kidnapped that year and who has not been located since, the police have issued these Circular issued by Police.

They relied on the following:

WANTED—Bella Pennick, at Maiden Mass.

On Wednesday, February 11, 1906, Bella Victoria Mally was kidnapped at Maiden by a woman named Bella Pennick, a woman of about 35 years of age, of medium height, light complexion, good looking, with dark hair, dressed in a blue dress and a blue coat. The Snally girl is eight years old, with light complexion, blue eyes, and light brown hair.

The woman was found near the home of H. Harris, chief of the Maiden police.

The woman is believed to have been an instigator in the kidnapping. The relatives of the two children are anxious to know the whereabouts of the children.

The history of the two children is as follows: The Snally girl, in which they have been estranged since, regardless of their own names, was born in South Africa, and from South Africa four years ago, they came to New York, where the mother was married in New York, while the mother was in the home of her father, James Elliott of New York.

The mother was sent to the home for both children, as she sent little Hattie to the home of her father, James Elliott of New York, wife of ex-Asher Bishop of New York.

The mother was found by Mrs. Bishop, who was formally adopted by Mrs. Bishop, who was Magnitude of Meridian, Miss., Disaster Grows as More Detailed Reports Are Received from Stricken City---Property Loss Likely to Be $3,000,000---Large District Devastated.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 3.—The loss of life at Meridian, Miss., is underestimated. Over 100 bodies have already been recovered.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 3.—A message received by Superintendent A. Griggs of the Alabama Great Southern to-day from the operator at Toomaba, Miss., four miles north of Meridian, who had just come from the scene of the disaster, says that more than 100 persons were killed, and that the property loss was enormous. He says all buildings between First street and the railroad tracks were destroyed, and calls for a large force of workmen to assist in removing bodies from the debris now being made.

BERTHE CLAICHE ILL IN TERROR OF ORDEAL

TOMBS PHYSICIAN IS ALARMED FOR "GIRL SLAVE" ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

[illegible]

Worn Out by Long Strain.
She saw her mother in the evening, but was little relieved after the visit. Delaying her going to bed as long as she could, it was nearly 10 o'clock when she sought her couch in the Tomba cell. But it was not to sleep. Hour after hour dragged by and found her still sleepless. It was not

After 2 o'clock this morning, worn out with crying and crying, the Tumbas sadly closed their eyes from sheer exhaustion.

Although Saturday is not a visiting day for the Tumbas, the family was in the clubhouse for a communion of St. Vincent's Laury today, and her mother was permitted to see her daughter in her cell. She was able to converse with her daughter to overlook and remained with the girl for more than two hours, comforting her and telling her to be strong and to be brave.

At 10 o'clock this morning, the Tumbas were afraid of the day when she must take the witness stand.

The prisoner was pleased to hear that her father, St. Andrew, had come from Father Evers of St. Andrew's Catholic Church, one of the visiting chaplains to the Tumbas, but she was given more than a shock when she learned that her father, bound in black seal leather, the gift of Father Evers, was to be taken to the witness stand.

Fear Her Coming Ordeal.

The shrinking fear she has of the damaging her counsel will order her to take the stand and tell the jury in whose hand her life, every incident in her life as far back as she can remember possesses her completely. She has promised former friends, relatives and Abner that she would testify, and she does not want to go back on her word, nor to spare herself, but it is a ordeal that brings a frightened look into her eyes when she thinks of it.

Hendon's first thrust—"Tell Bertha extremely to reveal me at 9:30 or I'll give her $750," exultantly said, "I'll bet you'll do it." The witness was laid before the jury in the middle third yesterday by the thirty-second trial of the case.

"At this point of great strength for the defense—the first they have made—I've established the fact that Bertha had been told to come to Court House when she went to meet him at the rendezvous on the night that he was killed. There-

Dead May Now Number 200.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. March 3.—Wire communications have just been restored between this city and Meridian, Miss., and information has been received that goes to show that the dead will number between 100 and 200 people.

The work of research has begun but it is being carried on under disadvantageous circumstances. Nothing like a complete list has as

The north-bound Atchafalaya Great Southern train which left Meridian a couple of minutes before the force of the howling tornado struck the city reached here today bearing marks of the storm.

Many of the windows of the cars had been smashed and the train crew was still in a state of error over their narrow escape. When the sound of the on-coming cyclone reached them and the sky grew black many of the train crew fell upon their knees in prayer.

The coaches of the train, it was said by passengers, rocked violently on the track and it was feared for a time that they would be overturned and carried away in the terrible current.

Word has reached here to the effect that a fast freight train was caught in the storm and derailed from the track, killing or wounding all of the members of the crew.

1,000 Injured—Loss $3,000,000.

MOBILE, Ala., May 23. The remains, fashioned by a fire, that swept through Mobile, Miss., at 4:30 o'clock last evening brought death it is estimated, to about 120 people, and the loss of property was estimated at the value of the city proper that will reach $12,000,000. Damage done outside the city it is believed, will bring the money loss to $5,000,000.

The fire, which broke out near the city, by the steam, the fragmentary facts that have reached this city have come over a

Many of the largest buildings in the city were destroyed and the occupants perished under crumbling walls or were burned to death before help could reach them. Of the dead probably two score were whites, the others being negroes who

SPRING WORK ON GRIDIRON SOON STARTS AT YALE

NEW HAVEN, Ct., March 3.—Captain Ramsey Morse's announcement of Foster Rockefeller as Yale's head football coach for next fall has delighted the college world. Head Advisory Coach Walter Camp, Rockwell and Captain Morse will now arrange details for the Spring practice, which will be unusually early and long.

A novel move which will be made will be that the candidates for the eleven will be told to join the team, because only sixty, quick men will be wanted for the football eleven next fall. For the first time the Yale team will be made up of the middle class runners on the Yale track squad.

A study of the new Yale Harvard Princeton eligibility rules shows that Yale will not lose men from the professional schools unless they hold a degree advanced enough to admit to at least the senior class at Yale, Harvard or Princeton. This rule will cut Yale Planners and Yale but not Yale and Yale.

HARVARD TO MEET GREEN ON TRACK MAY 5

Harvard and Dartmouth have decided to join forces this Spring on the track and a dual meet will be held at Cambridge on the Stadium oval on May 5. This is an entirely new departure for the Crimson and is undertaken by Coach Hurlston for the purpose of getting a start in the Yale dual games on the oval on May 19, and in the intercollegiate meet on May 25 and 26.

The Crimson team are out daily in the gymnasium and on the wooden track at Harvard Field under Trainers Latham and Green. The latter is working hard to develop the weight men.

A weekly competition has been arranged for the middle weight men of the Crimson and is awarded a trophy. This has been successful in winning up a large number of conditions, but very few are showing really form.
